

Inclusive house Bell

PROJECT SUMMARY:

The limited mobility of volunteer services, especially inclusive ones, caused by pandemics and natural disasters, prevents volunteers from becoming more actively involved in supporting vulnerable groups and citizens living in earthquake-affected areas, especially in rural areas.

The objectives of the project are: to organize a mobile volunteer service in the earthquake-affected area, strengthen the Petrinja Volunteer Center for the implementation of volunteer activities that will provide insight into the current needs of the local community, create methods for their application and transfer knowledge to stakeholders in the local community. As a partner in this project, Association for promotion of IT, culture and coexistence from Petrinja joined, with whose help we will work on achieving the objectives of the project.

Activities:

- Organization of regular field work of the mobile volunteer service;
- Mapping the needs for support in the educational process of children, with special emphasis on children and youth with disabilities;
- Reporting on the collected data and proposing methods of organizing support to children and youth in the area of the City of Petrinja and Sisak.

The direct beneficiaries are volunteers of the mobile volunteer service, civil society organizations and institutions in the area of the City of Petrinja and Sisak.

Indirect beneficiaries are children of the general population and children and young people with disabilities from the area of the City of Petrinja and Sisak.

The applicant will ensure the field work of volunteers, send their mobile volunteer services to the field (needs mapping), prepare a report on the results of mapping, propose support methods based on the results of mapping and assistance and support the regular work of the Volunteer Center Petrinja.

The partner will develop a plan for mapping the needs of end users, implement mapping of needs in the field with the help of applicants, coordinate field work of the mobile volunteer service and participate in the preparation of reports on mapping results and distribution to NGOs and institutions.
